Uphold Te Tiriti o Waitangi in education

Te Tiriti o Waitangi gives all our learners a place to belong here in Aotearoa.

Unfortunately, the Government has driven divisive policy around te Tiriti in education; demoting te Tiriti in legislation and curriculum, cutting specialist Māori teacher jobs and getting rid of successful te reo Māori professional development.

Educators are committed to te Tiriti and want the Government to support them to honour, respect and celebrate te Tiriti.

End the attacks on Māori education so that tamariki Māori have a just education and all tamariki can be secure in their belonging here in Aotearoa.

Kimi haeata means seek the dawn, and we're seeking a new dawn in education. Back our future!
